

International District Library's fiber group December 14, 2023

Not Your Grandmother's Embroidery is a discussion, display and demonstration of a variety of currently popular embroidery styles and techniques, with information on what and where to learn, where to buy and other information to entice a person who wishes to get started or learn more about embroidery.

Geometric on canvas

Cross-stitch and other stitches

Blackwork (in color) & Whitework

Stumpwork

Rebecca Wardlaw is a retired lawyer who has been doing embroidery since she was a child. Through her involvement with The Embroiderers' Guild of America (EGA) and the American Needlepoint Guild (ANG) she has expanded her knowledge of historical knowledge as well as her abilities. She is always learning. Her favorite style of embroidery is "stumpwork".