

Albuquerque Fiber Arts Fiesta (AFAF) 2024
Guild-Sponsored Class

Crochet Cafe

Sponsored by New Mexico Crochet Guild

Friday, April 12, 2024
10:30 am – 1:30 pm, 3 Hours
Classroom D

Description: Welcome to the Crochet Café, where you can choose from a menu of short, individualized lessons of 15-30 minutes. Pick one or pick all, the choice is yours. You may choose from several options from the menu. You will come away from the lessons with new and helpful information and the confidence to continue on your own. Each lesson runs 15-30 minutes and is done on a drop-in basis.

Choose from the following:

Basic Crochet (how do I start?)

My Rectangles Are Wonky

Getting Around to Making Circles

Granny, You Are So Square

Help! This Pattern Doesn't Make Sense (bring a pattern you can't figure out)

A Picture is Worth a Thousand Words (chart reading)

Join Yarn the Russian Way

Ami-how-do-you-say-it Animals

Turning the Corner in C2C

Hats Are Just Tubes

Free Yourself from the Chains in Foundations.

The Instructors: Members of the New Mexico Crochet Guild (NMCG). The NMCG is proud of its instructors who have presented several programs to the guild as well as outside the guild. Their years of crochet experience and teaching experience is remarkable. They want you to be successful in this fun, creative art called crochet.

Level: All skill levels and ages. Under 12 accompanied by an adult.

Class size: No maximum number of students

Cost: Pay just $5 per lesson and pick as many lessons as time allows. All proceeds benefit the NMCG.

This does not include EXPO parking fee or show entry fee.

Materials

Students need to bring: Nothing. Optional: a problematic pattern or project
Instructors will provide: Handouts, yarn, tools.

Registration and Payment

<https://forms.gle/X5KtfUbiA6FXjTT9>