

Albuquerque Fiber Arts Fiesta (AFAF) 2024
Guild-Sponsored Class

Amigurumi Octopus

Sponsored by New Mexico Crochet Guild

Saturday, April 13, 2024
1:30 pm – 4:30 pm, 3 Hours
Classroom D

Description: This class will be a beginner/easy class teaching a small amigurumi octopus seamless pattern. All parts of the octopus will be crocheted in one piece. Students need to be able to crochet a chain, single crochet, and slip stitch.

The Instructor: Toni Dodough is an experienced crochet instructor who enjoys sharing her love of the art. Many of her amigurumi projects are designed for teaching so that her students have an easy time learning. You will appreciate her laid-back style and humor while advancing your crochet skills.

Level: Advanced beginner. Children must be accompanied by an adult.

Class size: Maximum students: 12

Cost: $55

This does not include EXPO parking fee or show entry fee.

Materials

Students need to bring: Scissors, stitch markers

Instructor will provide: Yarn, hook, pattern and pencils

Registration and Payment

<https://forms.gle/H49rBdqjBo53J3WH7>