Silk Painting Like a Stained Glass Treasure

Friday, 4/12/24

11:00 am – 12:30 pm, 1.5 Hours

Classroom B

Description: We will learn the basic serti silk painting technique, outlining with metallic water-based resist and filling in the spaces with vibrant silk dyes. You will be painting on a 10-inch round pre-stretched silk surface. Traceable images will be provided for anyone who doesn't want to draw their own. We will set the colors in class to be able to take your "silk stained glass treasure" home with you.

The Instructor: Claudia Fluegge has been painting on silk for the past 20 years, creating wearable and wall art on silk. Drawn to the vibrant colors and the silky flowing texture, she takes her inspiration from nature. Claudia is an award winning artist showing her work primarily in New Mexico. With a background in social work and child development, she has given many silk painting classes to groups and individuals. She says, she loves the interactions with her students and taking them through the silk painting process.

Level: Beginner adults and 14 years +. Children 10 – 13 must be accompanied by an adult.

Class size: Maximum 12 students

Cost: $52.00 includes materials and tax
This does not include EXPO parking fee or show entry fee.
